

Aida Berduo Douglas

Aida Douglas' 16-year professional career has been mostly in the government and non-profit sector. She began her career in the public sector working for member agencies of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California. In 1996, Aida relocated to Austin, Texas where she had the opportunity to work in Texas government at the Texas House of Representatives. She later went on to work for the Greater Austin Hispanic Chamber of Commerce where she worked closely with the minority business community.

Since 1999, Aida has worked for the Capital Metropolitan Transportation Authority, the public transportation agency in Austin, Texas. She currently serves as the Business Development Manager/DBE Officer for the agency. In this capacity, Aida is responsible for managing million dollar revenue projects including the agency's transit advertising program, business partnerships as well as the Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) Program for the agency.

Aida is the current President of the COMTO Chapter in Austin, TX. She holds a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration from California State University Dominguez Hills and a Masters of Public Administration (MPA) from Texas State University -San Marcos.