

Olivia Green Jones

Olivia Jones, 25-year career in the transportation industry both public and private. She began her career in the US Army in 1984. In 1994, Olivia moved with her military family to Fort Hood, Texas. At Fort Hood she pursued her transportation interest as a driver and dispatcher at the Transportation Motor Pool.

In 1998, Olivia came to Austin to follow her desire to work for public transit at Capital Metropolitan Transportation Authority. She currently serves as the Assistant Director of Transportation of Star Tran Incorporated, Capital Metro service provider. In this capacity, Aida is responsible for managing primary fixed route bus services for the Austin area.

Olivia is the current Secretary of the COMTO Chapter in Austin, TX. She is currently a student at University of Phoenix where she is pursuing a degree in business management.